CHAPTER 4 SHAREHOLDERS AND THE GENERAL MEETING

Section 1 General Provisions on Shareholders

Article 35 The Company shall establish the shareholders' register based upon evidence provided by the Securities Registration and Clearing Authority, which is sufficient evidence that shareholders hold shares in the Company. Subject to paperless issue and trading of the Company's stocks, provisions of this section apply to provisions of the securities regulatory body and stock exchange in the place of listing of stocks in the Company enacted otherwise.

A shareholder shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class of shares held by them. Shareholders of the same class shall enjoy equal rights and assume the same obligations.

Article 36 The Board or the convener of a General Meeting shall fix a date as the date for the determination of share ownership required to convene a shareholders' general meeting, distribute dividends, liquidation of the Company and for other acts requiring confirmation of shareholders' identity. Shareholders whose names are registered in the register of shareholders at the close of business on the date of determination shall be the shareholders entitled to the relevant interests.

Article 37 The holders of ordinary shares of the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

- (1) to receive dividends and other forms of profit distribution on the basis of the number of shares held by them;
- (2) to request to hold, convene, chair, participate in or to appoint proxies to participate in the shareholders' general meetings and exercise corresponding voting rights in accordance with the laws;
- (3) to supervise the operation of the Company, and to make suggestions and raise queries;
- (4) to transfer, give or pledge shares in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, and the Articles of Association;
- (5) to review and make copies of the Articles of Association, registers of shareholders, the minutes of shareholders' meetings, resolutions of the board meetings, and the financial and accounting reports;
- (6) participate in the distribution of the residual property of the Company on the basis of the number of shares held by them when the Company is terminated or liquidated;
- (7) request the Company to buy back his shares if a shareholder opposes to the resolution of merger or division of the Company at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (8) other rights stipulated by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 38 When a shareholder submits a request to review and make copies of relevant materials of the Company, he/she shall comply with provisions of laws and regulations such as the Company Law and the Securities Law.

Article 39 If any resolution of a shareholders' general meeting or Board meeting is in violation of the laws and administrative regulations, the shareholders shall have the right to request the People's court to invalidate the said resolution.

If the meeting convening procedures and voting method of the shareholders' general meetings or Board meetings are in violation of the laws and administrative regulations or the Articles of Association or if the contents of any resolution are in breach of the Articles of Association, the shareholders shall have the right to request the People's court to revoke the said resolution within 60 days after the resolution has been made, except that the convening procedures or voting methods of the general meeting or Board meeting are only slightly defective without substantial effects produced on resolutions.

Where the Board, any shareholder or a relevant party disputes the effect of a General Meeting resolution, it shall promptly sue to the people's court. Before the people's court makes any judgment or ruling revoking the resolution, relevant parties shall execute the general meeting resolution. The Company and its directors and officers shall faithfully perform their duties to ensure normal operation of the Company.

Where the people's court makes a judgment or ruling on relevant matters, the Company shall perform its information disclosure obligations according to provisions of laws, regulations, CSRC and stock exchange, fully explain its effects and actively cooperate with the execution after the judgment or ruling takes effect. Where correction of previous events is involved, corresponding information disclosure obligations shall be promptly dealt with and performed.

Article 54 The Board shall convene a general meeting in time within the prescribed time limit. Subject to consent of more than half of all independent non-executive directors, independent non-executive directors shall be entitled to make a proposal to the Board of Directors on holding an extraordinary general meeting. For such a proposal, the Board of Directors shall give a written reply on whether to agree or not to hold such meeting within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Where the Board of Directors agrees to hold such a meeting, a notice of general meeting shall be given within 5 days after the resolution of the Board of Directors is made. Where the Board of Directors does not agree to hold such a meeting, its reasons shall be given and an announcement shall be made.

Article 55 The Audit Committee shall be entitled to make a proposal to the Board of Directors on holding an extraordinary general meeting and shall make such a proposal in written form. The Board of Directors shall give a written reply on whether to agree or not to hold such meeting within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Where the Board of Directors agrees to hold such meeting, a notice of general meeting shall be given within 5 days after the resolution of the Board of Directors is made. Any change to the original proposal in the notice shall be subject to the approval from the Audit Committee.

Where the Board of Directors does not agree to hold such a meeting, or fails to give a written reply within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal, the Audit Committee may convene the shareholders' meeting on its own.

Article 56 Shareholders holding over 10% of shares in the Company either alone or in aggregate have the right to request the Board of Directors to hold an EGM, provided that such request shall be filed in writing. The Board of Directors shall provide a written response indicating approval or disapproval of holding of EGM within 10 days of receipt of the request according to laws and regulations and these articles of association.

Where the Board of Directors agrees to hold an EGM, it shall give a notice of general meeting within 5 days of making of a board resolution, provided that any change to the original request contained in the notice shall be subject to the prior consent of related shareholders. Where the Board of Directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting, or does not respond within 10 days after receiving the request, ordinary shareholders holding more than 10% of the Company's shares individually or in aggregate have the right to propose to the Audit Committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and shall submit a request to the Audit Committee in writing.

If the Audit Committee agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice to convene a general meeting within 5 days of receiving the request. Changes to the original request set out in the notice shall be subject to the consents of relevant shareholders.

The failure of the Audit Committee to issue a notice of the shareholders' meeting within the prescribed time limit shall be deemed that the Audit Committee will not convene and preside over the shareholders' meeting. Ordinary shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 10% of the Company's shares for more than 90 consecutive days may convene and preside over a shareholders' meeting.

Article 57 Where the Audit Committee or shareholders decide to convene the shareholders' general meeting, it shall be notified to the Board of Directors in writing and filed with stock exchanges.

Prior to the announcement of the resolution of the general meeting, the shareholders that convene the meeting shall hold no less than 10% of the shares.

The Audit Committee or shareholders that convene the general meeting shall submit relevant certificates to the stock exchanges when issuing a notice of general meeting or an announcement on a resolution of a general meeting.

Article 58 With respect to a general meeting convened by the Audit Committee or shareholders, the Board of Directors and the Secretary to the Board shall give cooperation. The Board of Directors shall provide the register of the shareholders as of the record date.

Article 59 The costs and expenses required for general meetings convened by the Audit Committee or shareholders shall be borne by the Company.

Section 5 Proposals and Notification of General Meeting

Article 60 The content of a proposal determined by general meeting shall have definite topics to be discussed and specific matters for resolution and shall be in compliance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 61 When the Company convenes a general meeting, the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee and shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose resolutions to the Company.

Shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the Company's shares may propose provisional proposals in writing to the convener(s) 10 days before the general meeting is convened. The convener (s) shall issue a supplementary notice of the general meeting within 2 days after receiving the proposals to announce the contents of the provisional proposals and submit the provisional proposal to the general meeting for deliberation, except where the provisional proposal violates laws, regulations or these articles of association or is outside the terms of reference of general meeting.

Except as provided in the preceding paragraph, after sending out a notice of general meeting, the convener(s) shall not make any amendments to the proposals included in the notice of general meeting or add any new proposals.

Proposals not set out in the notice of general meeting or not complying with the Articles of Association shall not be voted on or resolved by the general meeting.

Article 62 The notice of a general meeting shall include the following:

- (1) the time, venue and duration of the meeting;
- (2) the matters and proposals submitted for consideration at the meeting;

- (3) A conspicuous statement in writing that all ordinary shareholders have the right to attend the General Meeting and engage proxies in writing to attend the meeting and take part in voting and that such proxies need not to be shareholders of the Company;
- (4) specified record date for shareholders entitled to attend the general meeting;
- (5) name and telephone number of the contact person for the meeting;
- (6) time and procedures of the voting online or by any other means.

Details of all proposals shall be disclosed on a full and complete basis in the notice and supplementary notice of general meeting.

The voting online or by any other means shall be started not earlier than 3:00 p.m. on the day before the on-the-spot general meeting is held and not later than 9:30 a.m. on the day when the on-the-spot general meeting is held, and shall be concluded not earlier than 3:00 p.m. on the day when the on-the-spot general meeting ends.

The interval between the date of record and date of meeting shall be no more than seven working days. The date of record shall not be changed once confirmed.

Subject to compliance with laws, regulations, normative documents and relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authority in the place of listing of the Company's stocks and fulfillment of relevant prescribed procedures, for holders of H shares, the Company may also give a notice of General Meeting by posting it on the website of the Company and the website designated by the HKSE or in such other manners allowed by the Hong Kong Listing Rules and these articles of association.

Article 63 Where the elections of Directors are intended to be discussed at the general meeting, the notice of the general meeting shall sufficiently disclose the particulars of the candidates for Directors, and shall include at least the following content:

- (1) personal particulars such as education background, work experience and part-time job(s);
- (2) whether the candidate has any related-party relationship with the Company, its controlling shareholders and de facto controllers;
- (3) the shareholdings in the Company;
- (4) whether or not they have been penalized by CSRC or other related authorities and the stock exchange;

- (5) Other information required to be disclosed according to the provisions of the securities regulatory authority in the place of listing of the Company's stocks and the HK Listing Rules.

Apart from Directors elected through the cumulative voting system, each candidate for Director shall be individually proposed.

Article 64 After issuance of the notice for the general meeting, the general meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled without proper reasons and the proposals specified in the notice shall not be withdrawn. In case of delay or cancellation, the convener shall make an announcement giving reasons at least 2 working days before the date when the meeting was originally scheduled for.

Section 6 Conduct of General Meeting

Article 65 The Board of Directors of the Company and other convener(s) shall take necessary measures to ensure the smooth running of the general meeting, including measures taken to deter any acts of intervening the general meeting, picking quarrels, provoking trouble and infringing of legal rights and interests of shareholders, and shall report them to the authorities for investigation and punishment on a timely basis.

Article 66 All shareholders on the register of shareholders on the shareholding record date or their proxies shall be entitled to attend the general meeting, and vote in accordance with the provisions of the relevant laws, regulations and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders may attend the general meeting in person or they may appoint proxies to attend and vote on their behalf.

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the principal or his attorney appointed by it in writing according to the listing rules in the place of listing of stocks; where the principal is a legal person, such instrument shall be under its seal or under the hand of his Director or attorney duly authorized in writing according to the listing rules in the place of listing of stocks.

Article 67 Individual shareholders who attend the meeting in person shall produce their identity cards or other effective document or proof of identity. Proxies of individual shareholders shall produce effective proof of identity and the authorization letter from the shareholder.

A corporate shareholder shall appoint a legal representative or a proxy entrusted by the legal representative to attend the meeting. If a legal representative attends the meeting, he shall produce his identity card and a valid certificate proving his qualification to be a legal representative; if a proxy is entrusted to attend the meeting, the proxy shall produce his identity card, and a written power of attorney issued by the legal representative of the corporate shareholder in accordance with the law.

If a shareholder is a recognized clearing house or its agent within the meaning of the relevant regulations imposed in Hong Kong from time to time, he may authorize one or more proxy(ies) as he thinks fit to act as his proxy(ies) at any general meeting. However, if more than one proxies are appointed, the proxy form shall specify the number and class of shares represented by each of such proxies under the authorization, and signed by authorized person of recognized clearing house. Such authorized proxies are entitled to attend the meeting on behalf of the recognized clearing house or its agent (without presentation of evidence of their shareholding, notarized authorization and/or further proof demonstrating the duly granting of the same) and exercise the right, as if they were the individual shareholders of the Company.

Article 68 The instrument issued by the shareholder to authorize another person to attend the general meeting shall state the following contents:

- (1) name of the principal and class and quantity of shares held thereby in the Company;
- (2) name of the proxy;
- (3) specific instructions of the shareholder, including indication of consent, objection or abstention concerning each proposal to be resolved on the agenda of general meeting;
- (4) date of signing of the instrument and term of validity;
- (5) The signature (or seal) of the principal or agent appointed by it in writing according to the listing rules in the place of listing of stocks. Where the principal is a corporate shareholder, the power of attorney shall be affixed with the corporate seal or signed by one of its directors or duly authorized agent according to the listing rules in the place of listing of stocks. A proxy present at a General Meeting shall be deemed to constitute the corporate shareholder as attending the General Meeting in person.

Article 69 The proxy form shall state that if the shareholder does not give specific instructions, the proxy shall vote at his/her/its own discretion.

Article 70 Where the power of attorney for voting proxy is signed by another person authorized by the principal, the authorization letter or other documents authorizing the signatory shall be notarized. The notarized authorization letter or other authorized documents and the power of attorney for voting proxy shall be placed at the domicile of the Company or at such other places as specified in the notice of convening the meeting.

Article 71 A registration record for attendees at the meeting shall be compiled by the Company. The registration record shall contain items including but not limited to the names of the attendees (or names of organizations), identity card numbers, the number of shares held or voting rights represented and names of the principals (or name of organizations).

Article 72 The convener(s) and lawyers appointed by the Company shall verify the validity of shareholders' qualification based on the register of shareholders offered by the securities registration and clearing institution, and shall register names of shareholders and the number of voting shares they hold. The registration for the meeting shall be terminated before the chair of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting as well as the total number of voting shares they hold.

Article 73 Where a general meeting requires directors and officers to attend the meeting as nonvoting attendees, Directors and officers shall so attend the meeting and accept inquiries from shareholders. Where the aforesaid persons are unable to attend the meeting, they may appoint another director to attend the meeting on his/her behalf.

Article 74 The general meeting shall be convened by the Board of Directors and presided over by the chairman of the Board of Directors. Where the chairman of the Board of Directors is unable to discharge or fails to discharge his/her duties, the meeting shall be convened and presided over by the vice chairman of the Board of Directors (if there are two or more vice chairmen, the one elected by more than half of the directors shall preside over the meeting). Where the board chairman and vice board chairmen are unable to attend the meeting, the meeting shall be presided over by a director jointly elected by more than half of directors.

The general meetings convened by the Audit Committee shall be presided over by the convener of the Audit Committee. Should the convener of the Audit Committee be unable to perform or fail to perform the duties, it shall be presided over by a member of the Audit Committee elected by more than half of the Audit Committee's members.

For the general meetings convened by shareholders, the conveners or a representative elected by them shall preside over the meeting.

In the event that the chairperson of the meeting violates the rules of procedures which results in the general meeting being unable to continue, upon approval by the shareholders representing more than half of the voting rights present at the meeting, a person may be elected by the general meeting to preside over the general meeting and the meeting shall continue.

Article 75 The Company shall formulate the rules of procedures for the general meeting and specify in details the procedures for convening, holding and voting at the general meeting, including notification, registration, reviewing of proposals, voting, counting of votes, announcement of voting results, formation of meeting resolutions, minutes of meeting and their signing, public announcements as well as principle for the authorization granted to the Board by the general meeting, and the content of authorization shall be clear and specific. The rules of procedures for the general meeting shall be appended to the Articles of Association and shall be formulated by the Board and approved by the general meeting.

Article 76 In the annual general meeting, the Board shall report their work for the past year to the general meeting. Each independent non-executive director shall also present a work report.

Article 77 Directors, managers and officers shall provide answers and explanations in response to queries and recommendations made by shareholders at the general meeting, provided that no trade secrets of the Company shall be discussed at the meeting.

Article 78 The chair of the meeting shall, prior to voting, announce the number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting as well as the total number of voting shares they hold, which shall be that as indicated in the meeting's register.

Article 79 Minutes shall be prepared for general meetings by the Secretary to the Board. The minutes shall state the following contents:

- (1) time, venue and agenda of the meeting and name of the convener;
- (2) the name of the chair of the meeting and the names of Directors and officers attending the meeting as nonvoting attendees;
- (3) the numbers of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, total number of voting shares they hold and the percentages to the total number of shares of the Company;
- (4) the process of review and discussion, summary of any speech and voting results of each proposal;
- (5) shareholders' questions, opinions or suggestions and corresponding answers or explanations;
- (6) names of lawyers, vote counters and scrutinizer of the voting;
- (7) other contents to be included as specified in the Articles of Association.

Article 80 The convener shall ensure that the contents of the minutes are true, accurate and complete. Directors present or attending as nonvoting attendees, Secretaries to the Board, convener or his/her representative and the chair of the meeting shall sign on the minutes. The minutes shall be kept together with the attendance register, proxy forms and valid records on internet voting and other means of voting, for a period of 10 years.

Article 81 The convener shall ensure the general meeting goes on smoothly until final resolutions are made. Where the general meeting is suspended or unable to make any resolution due to any special reasons such as force majeure, necessary measures shall be taken to resume or terminate the general meeting as soon as possible, and an announcement shall be made in a timely manner. Meanwhile, the convener shall report it to the local office of the CSRC in the place where the Company operates and the stock exchange.

Section 7 Voting and Resolutions of General Meetings

Article 82 Resolutions of general meetings are in the form of ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution of a general meeting shall be passed with the approval of more than half of the voting rights held or represented by the shareholders (including proxies) attending the meeting.

A special resolution of a general meeting shall be passed with the approval of two thirds or more of the voting rights held or represented by the shareholders (including proxies) attending the meeting.

Article 83 The following matters shall be adopted by way of ordinary resolutions at general meetings:

- (1) work reports of the Board of Directors;
- (2) profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans prepared by the Board of Directors;
- (3) appointment and dismissal of the members of the Board of Directors and their remuneration matters;
- (4) other matters other than those required by the laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed or the Articles of Association to be adopted by special resolutions.

Article 84 The following matters shall be adopted by way of special resolutions at shareholders' general meetings:

- (1) increase or reduction in the registered capital;
- (2) the division, split, merger, dissolution, liquidation and change of corporate form of the Company;
- (3) amendments to the Articles of Association;

- (4) the purchases and disposals of material assets or guarantees within one year, which exceed 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (5) equity incentive plans;
- (6) acquisition of shares of the Company as stipulated in item (1) or (2) of Article 28 hereof;
- (7) any other matters required by the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, and matters considered in an ordinary resolution adopted at a shareholders' general meeting having a material impact on the Company, and thus in need of approval by a special resolution.

Article 85 Shareholders (including proxies) shall exercise their voting rights according to the number of shares carrying voting rights they represent, with one vote for each share.

Where the significant matters influencing the interests of small and medium investors are considered at the general meeting, the voting by small and medium investors shall be independently counted. The independent counting results shall be promptly disclosed.

Shares of the Company held by the Company itself do not carry any voting rights, and shall not be counted in the total number of shares carrying voting rights represented by shareholders attending a Shareholders' General Meeting.

In case shareholders purchase shares carrying voting rights of the Company in violation of the first and second paragraph of Article 63 of the Securities Law, the voting rights over the shares exceeding the stipulated proportion shall not be exercised within 36 months after purchase, and such shares shall not be included into the total shares carrying voting rights at the general meeting.

The Board of Directors of the Company, independent non-executive Directors and shareholders who meet the relevant requirements, as well as the investor protection agencies established in accordance with laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of China Securities Regulatory Commission are entitled to solicit shareholders' voting rights. Information including the specific voting intention shall be fully disclosed to shareholders from whom voting rights are being solicited. It is prohibited to solicit voting rights from shareholders by offering consideration or consideration in disguised form. The Company shall not impose any limit on the minimum shareholding in respect of the soliciting voting rights except the statutory conditions.

Article 86 When connected transactions are being considered at a shareholders' general meeting, the connected shareholders shall abstain from voting, and the number of shares carrying voting rights represented by them shall not be counted in the total number of valid votes; The announcement on the resolutions of a general meeting shall fully disclose the voting results of non-connected shareholders.

If any shareholder shall abstain from voting on certain resolution in according to applicable laws and regulations and the listing rules in the place of listing of the Company's stocks, or such listing rules limit any shareholder to vote in favor of or against certain resolution, the voting which violates such requirement or limitation by such shareholder or his proxy shall not be included in the voting results.

Article 87 Unless under special circumstances, such as the Company is in crisis etc., without being approved by the shareholders' general meeting through special resolution, the Company shall not settle a contract that grants the management of all or important businesses of the Company to a person other than Directors and officers.

Article 88 List of Director candidates shall be submitted in the form of proposals to the shareholders' general meeting for vote.

As to voting for the election of Directors at the general meeting, cumulative voting system may be adopted in accordance with the provisions in the Articles of Association or resolutions to be passed at the shareholders' general meeting. The election of more than two independent directors at a General Meeting shall adopt the cumulative voting system.

Candidates for directors of the Company are generally shareholders' representatives of the Company, officers of the Company or social celebrities. Candidates of directors who are not employee representatives shall be nominated by the board of directors of last term of office and submitted to the general meeting for vote.

Article 89 Except for the cumulative voting system, the shareholders' general meeting shall vote on each proposal individually. Where there are different proposals on the same issue, voting should be carried out in the chronological order of the proposals raised. Except for special reasons such as force majeure causing suspension of the shareholders' general meeting or failure to reach a resolution, the shareholders' general meeting shall not set aside any proposal or have any proposal not voted.

Article 90 When considering a proposal at a shareholders' general meeting, no amendments shall be made to the proposal. Otherwise, any amendment made shall be considered as a new proposal and shall not be voted at that general meeting.

Article 91 One and the same vote can only be cast either onsite, online or in another voting manner. If there occurs repeated casting of one and the same vote, the results of the first voting shall prevail.

Article 92 Voting is conducted by open ballot at the Shareholders' General Meeting.

Article 93 Before the relevant proposal is voted on at a shareholders' general meeting, two representatives of the shareholders shall be appointed for counting the votes and scrutinizing the poll. Any shareholder who is related to the matter under consideration and his proxy shall not take part in counting the votes or scrutinizing the poll.

When the proposal is being voted on at the shareholders' general meeting, lawyers and the representatives of shareholders shall be jointly responsible for counting the votes and scrutinizing the poll, and the voting result shall be announced at the meeting. The voting results relating to such proposed resolution shall be recorded in the minutes of meeting. Auditors of the Company, share registrars or external accountants who are qualified to act as auditors of the Company may act as the vote counters and the scrutineers.

Shareholders of the listed company or their proxies, who have cast their votes by online voting or by other means, have the right to check their voting results through the respective voting system.

Article 94 The on-site shareholders' general meeting shall not end earlier than the online meeting or meeting delivered through other means. The chair of the general meeting shall announce the voting status and result for each proposal and announce whether a resolution is passed according to the voting result.

Before the voting result is officially announced, the listed company, counter, scrutineer, shareholders, network services provider and other related parties involved in the on-site general meeting, online meeting or meeting delivered through other means shall keep confidential the voting result.

Article 95 Shareholders who attend the general meeting shall take one of the following stances when a proposal is put forward for voting: vote for, vote against or abstain from voting.

It is an exception when the securities registration and clearing institution makes declaration according to the will of the de facto holder as the nominal shareholder of the trading interconnection mechanism between Mainland China and Hong Kong.

Any votes which are uncompleted, erroneously completed or illegible, or uncast votes shall be considered as an abstention of voting rights by the voter and the outcome of votes carried with the shares held by such voter shall be counted as "abstain from voting".

Article 96 Where the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the voting result of a resolution proposed for voting, he may request the votes to be counted. If the chairman of the meeting fails to have the votes counted, any shareholder or proxy attending the meeting who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may require immediately after the declaration that the votes be counted, the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 97 The announcement of the resolutions passed at the general meeting shall be timely published and specify the number of the shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of shares carrying voting rights held by them and the percentage of such shares in relation to the total number of shares of the Company carrying voting rights, the means of voting, the voting result of each resolution and the details of the resolutions passed.

Article 98 Where the proposed resolution is not passed, or the general meeting alters the resolution(s) passed at the previous general meeting, a special note shall be made in the announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting.

Article 99 Where proposed resolutions in relation to the election of Directors are passed at a general meeting, the time of taking office for the new Directors shall start from the date of passing such resolutions at the general meeting to the date of expiry of the term of office of the incumbent Directors.

Article 100 Where a proposed resolution in relation to the payment of cash dividends, the issue of bonus shares or the capitalisation of capital reserves has been passed at a general meeting, the Company shall implement the specific plans within two months after the conclusion of such general meeting.

CHAPTER 5 DIRECTORS AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 General Provisions on Directors

Election or appointment of any director in violation of provisions of this article shall be invalid. The Company will remove any director from his or her office and terminate his or her performance of duties if the director falls within any of the circumstances set forth above during his or her directorship.

Article 102 Directors shall be elected or replaced at a general meeting and may be removed out of office by the general meeting prior to the expiration of their tenure. The term of office of the Directors shall be three years and directors may serve consecutive terms if re-elected.

The tenure of a Director shall start from the date on which the said Director assumes office until the expiration of the term of the incumbent Board. In the event that re-election of Directors is not conducted on a timely manner upon expiration of the term of service of a Director, the incumbent Directors shall continue to perform their duties of Directors in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, department rules and requirements of the Articles of Association until incoming director assumes his office.

A director may be an officer, provided that the total number of directors who are officers and directors who are employee representatives may not exceed half of all directors of the Company.

Article 103 Directors shall abide by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, and bear fiduciary duties to the Company, take measures to avoid any possible conflict of interests with the Company and may not abuse their authority to seek illicit benefits.

Directors shall have the following duties of loyalty to the Company:

- (1) not embezzling the properties of the Company and not appropriating any funds of the Company;
- (2) not opening an account in his or her own name or in the name of another individual and depositing the assets or funds therein of the Company;
- (3) not abusing their authority to accept any bribe or other illicit income;
- (4) not directly or indirectly entering into contracts or transactions without reporting to the Board or general meeting or approval of resolutions of the Board or general meeting pursuant to these articles of association;
- (5) not using the advantages of his or her office to appropriate for himself/herself or for others, business opportunities which ought to belong to the Company except where they reported to the Board or general meeting and received approval of general meeting resolutions or such business opportunities can not be exploited by the Company according to laws, regulations or these articles of association;
- (6) not to operate a business for his or her own account or on behalf of others which is of the same type as the Company's business without reporting to the Board or general meeting or the consent of the general meeting resolutions;
- (7) not accepting for himself/herself commissions in connection with the Company's transactions with others;
- (8) not disclosing secrets of the Company without authorization;
- (9) not using his or her connected relationships to harm the interests of the Company;
- (10) other fiduciary duties specified in laws, administrative regulations, department rules and the Articles of Association.

Income derived by a Director in breach of this Article shall belong to the Company. If the Company sustains a loss as result of such breach, the Director shall be liable for the damages.

Article 104 A Director shall abide by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, bear a duty of diligence to the Company and exercise due care generally expected of managers in the best interests of the Company when performing their duties.

Directors shall have the following obligations of diligence toward the Company:

- (1) prudently, conscientiously and diligently exercising the rights granted him or her by the Company, so as to ensure that the commercial acts of the Company comply with state laws, administrative regulations and the requirements under various economic policies of the government, and that its commercial activities do not exceed the scope of business specified on the business license;
- (2) treating all shareholders equally;
- (3) timely keeping abreast of the Company's business operation and management situation;
- (4) signing written confirmation opinions on the regular reports of the Company so as to ensure that the information disclosed by the Company is true, accurate and complete;
- (5) providing true information and data to the Audit Committee and not interfering with the Audit Committee in the exercise of their functions and powers;
- (6) other obligations of diligence specified in laws, administrative regulations, department rules and the Articles of Association.

Article 105 A Director who fails to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors in person, nor to appoint another Director to attend the meeting of the Board of Directors meeting on his behalf for two consecutive times, shall be deemed unable to discharge his duties. The Board of Directors shall put forward a proposal at the general meeting to replace such Director.

Article 106 Directors may resign before expiry of their terms of office. The Directors who resign shall submit to the Company a written report in relation to their resignation. The resignation shall take effect on the day when the Company receives the resignation report, and the Company shall disclose such resignation promptly.

If the resignation of a Director causes the quorum of the Board of Directors to fall below the statutory minimum, the incumbent Director shall continue to perform his or her duties as a Director in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, department rules and the Articles of Association until the elected Director assumes his or her position.

In the event that any person is elected as a Director to fill a casual vacancy of, or as an additional director to, the Board of Directors, such newly elected Director or any person so appointed shall have a term of office commencing from the date on which he is elected until the next annual general meeting of the Company, and shall be eligible for re-election at the meeting.

Article 107 Upon coming into effect of his resignation or expiry of his term of office, a Director shall complete his hand-over procedures with the Board of Directors in entirety. The fiduciary duties of a Director to the Company and the shareholders do not necessarily cease upon termination of his term of office, and his obligations to keep the Company's business secrets confidential will survive the expiration of his term of office until such secrets become public information. Responsibilities that a director shall assume due to performance of his duties during his term of office shall not be exempted or terminated due to his separation from the Company.

Article 108 The general meeting may remove any director through resolutions, effective as of the date when the resolutions take effect. Where a Director is terminated before expiration of his term of office without justifiable reasons, the Director may demand indemnification from the Company.

Article 109 No Directors shall act, in their personal capacity, on behalf of the Company or the Board in contravention of provisions of this Articles of Association or without appropriate authorization by the Board. The Director(s) shall, when acting in his personal capacity, state his standings and identities in advance if a third party has reasons to believe that the said Director is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board.

Article 110 Where a Director causes damages to others due to performance of his duties to the Company, the Company will be liable for such damages; the Director shall also be liable for damages if he is found to have conducted intentional misconduct or gross negligence. A Director who causes the Company to sustain a loss as a result of a violation of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or this Articles of Association during the performance of his duties shall be liable for the damages.

Section 2 Board of Directors

Article 111 The Board of Directors is established by the Company and shall be responsible to the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 112 The Board of Directors shall be composed of 9 to 13 Directors and shall have one (1) chairman and three (3) to five (5) independent non-executive directors. One (1) or two (2) vice chairman/chairmen can be appointed, as well as one employee director.

Article 113 The Board of Directors exercises the following functions and powers:

Should the officers of the Company fail to faithfully fulfill their duties or violate the fiduciary duty, causing damage to the Company and the public shareholders, they shall bear the liability for compensation in accordance with the laws.

CHAPTER 7 FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS, PROFIT DISTRIBUTION AND AUDIT

Section 1 Financial and Accounting Systems

Article 154 The Company shall establish its financial and accounting systems in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of relevant state departments.

Article 155 The Company shall submit and disclose its annual reports to the local counterpart of China Securities Regulatory Commission and the stock exchange(s) within 4 months from the ending date of each accounting year, and its interim reports to the local office of China Securities Regulatory Commission and the stock exchange(s) within 2 months from the ending date of the first half of each accounting year.

The aforementioned annual and interim reports shall be prepared in accordance with relevant laws, administrative regulations as well as the stipulations of China Securities Regulatory Commission and stock exchange(s).

Article 156 The Company shall not keep accounts other than those provided for by the laws. It is not allowed to open an account to deposit the Company's funds in the name of any individual.

Article 157 When allocating the profit after taxation of the current year, the Company shall allocate 10% of its profit to the statutory common reserve fund. In the event that the accumulated statutory common reserve fund of the Company has reached more than 50% of the registered capital of the Company, no allocation is needed.

In the event that the statutory common reserve fund of the Company is insufficient to make up for the losses of the Company on the previous year, before allocating the statutory common reserve fund in accordance with the stipulations of the previous paragraph, the Company shall first make up for the losses by using the profits of the current year.

After allocating the statutory common reserve fund from the profit after taxation of the Company, the Company can allocate the arbitrary common reserve fund from the profit after taxation according to the resolution of shareholders' general meeting.

The profit after taxation of the Company, after covering the losses and making allocation to the common reserve fund, shall be distributed to the shareholders in accordance with their proportion of shareholdings.

If the general meeting distributes profit to shareholders in violation of the Company Law, the shareholders shall return such distributed profits to the Company; if losses are caused to the Company, shareholders and directors and officers held accountable shall be liable for damages.

The shares held by the Company shall not be involved in the profit distribution.

Article 158 The common reserve fund of the Company shall be used to cover the Company's losses, expand its production and operation, or be converted to increase the Company's registered capital.

When the capital reserve is used to make up the Company's losses, the discretionary reserve and statutory reserve shall be first used; if the losses can still not be covered, the capital reserve may be used according to provisions.

When converting the statutory reserve fund into registered capital, the balance of such reserve fund shall not be less than 25% of the registered capital of the Company before the conversion.

Article 159 After the resolution on profit distribution plan has been adopted at the shareholders' general meeting of the Company, the Board of Directors of the Company shall complete the distribution of dividends (or shares) within two months from the conduct of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 160 The Company's profit distribution policy is as follows:

(1) Principle of profit distribution: The profit distribution of the Company shall focus on the reasonable investment return of the investors. The Company shall determine the reasonable profit distribution plan in accordance with the current operation conditions and the capital requirement plan of project investment and maintain a continuous and stable profit distribution policy. The Company's profit distribution shall not exceed the range of the accumulated distributable profits nor harm the ability of the Company to operate and develop in a sustainable manner.

(2) Contents of the Company's profit distribution:

Profit of the Company can be distributed by cash, stock or a combination of cash and stock, with priority over cash dividends.

(3) Adjustment to profit distribution:

If the Company is required to make adjustments to the profit distribution policy in line with its production and operation, investment plans, and long term development demands, the adjusted profit distribution policy shall not violate the relevant regulations of the CSRC and Shanghai Stock Exchange. A resolution regarding the adjustments to the profit distribution policy shall perform respective decision-making procedure and shall be approved by the shareholders by an affirmative vote of two-thirds or more of all shareholders attending the general meeting.

(4) Decision-making procedure that profit distribution shall perform:

1. When formulating the profit distribution proposal, the Board of Directors shall take the initiative to communicate and exchange with shareholders especially with minority shareholders through multiply channel, fully listen to their opinions and demands, and timely respond to the issues that minority shareholders concerned.
2. When considering the profit distribution proposal, the Board of Directors shall carefully consider and deliberate the timing, conditions, and minimum percentage, etc. of the distribution of cash dividend by the Company, and independent non-executive director shall express their clear opinions.

Article 161 Any amount paid up by shareholders in advance of calls on any shares may carry interest but the holder of such shares shall not be entitled to any interest in a dividend subsequently declared for advanced payment.

Subject to the PRC laws, the Company may forfeit unclaimed dividends upon the expiration of applicable validity period.

The Company shall have the power to cease sending dividend warrants by post to any holder of H shares, provided that the Company will not exercise such power until such warrants have been so left uncashed on two consecutive occasions. However, such power may be exercised after the first occasion on which such a warrant is returned undelivered.

The Company has the power to sell the shares of a holder of H shares who is untraceable by means considered appropriate by the Board of Directors under the following conditions:

- (1) during a period of 12 years at least three dividends in respect of the shares in question have been declared by the Company and no dividend during that period has been claimed;
- (2) on expiry of the 12 years the Company gives notice of its intention to sell the shares by means of an announcement published in one or more newspapers in the place where the Company's shares are listed and notifies the stock regulatory institution on which such shares are listed of such intention.

Article 162 The Company shall appoint agents for receiving payment in respect of holders of H shares. Such receiving agents shall receive dividends distributed by the Company in respect of H shares and other payables on such shareholders' behalf.

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the requirements of the laws or relevant stock exchange rules of the place(s) where the shares are listed.

Section 2 Internal Audit

Article 163 The Company shall implement its internal audit system to regulate the duties and authorities of internal audit work, staffing, funding support and utilization of audit findings, and the Company shall be staffed with full-time auditors to carry out internal audit supervision on the financial balance and economic activities of the Company.

Article 164 The internal audit system of the Company and the duties of such auditors shall be implemented after the approval of the Board of Directors and then disclosed to the outside. The responsible auditor shall be responsible and report to the Board of Directors.

Article 165 The internal audit body shall be responsible and accountable to the Board.

The internal audit body shall accept supervision and guidance from the Audit Committee while supervising and inspecting business activities, risk management, internal control and financial information of the Company. The internal audit body shall immediately and directly report any relevant significant issues or leads found to the Audit Committee.

Article 166 The organization and implementation of the Company's internal control evaluation shall be the responsibility of the internal audit body. The Company issues the annual internal control evaluation reports based on evaluation reports and relevant materials issued by the internal control body and deliberated by the Audit Committee.

Article 167 When the Audit Committee communicates with external audit firms such as accounting firms and national audit agency, the internal audit body shall actively cooperate and provide necessary support and collaboration.

Section 3 Engagement of Accounting Firm

Article 168 The Company shall engage an accounting firm in conformity with the provisions in the Securities Law to conduct audit on the annual financial statement of the Company and to audit accounting reports, verify net assets, review other financial reports of the Company and to provide other related advisory services. The engagement lasts 1 year and is renewable.

Article 169 The engagement and termination of the accounting firm by the Company are subject to the decisions of the general meeting, while the Board of Directors must not appoint any accounting firms before the resolution of the general meeting.

Article 170 The Company warrants that it will provide the appointed accounting firm with true and complete accounting vouchers, accounting books, financial accounting reports and other accounting information, and it shall not refuse to provide or conceal or falsify such documents.

Article 171 The audit fee payable to the accounting firm shall be determined by the General Meeting.

Article 172 Prior to the removal or the non-renewal of the appointment of the accounting firm, 30 days of prior notice of such removal or non-renewal shall be given to the accounting firm and the accounting firm is allowed to state its opinions when the General Meeting votes on the dismissal of the accounting firm. Where the accounting firm resigns its post, it shall make clear to the shareholders' general meeting whether there has been any impropriety on the part of the Company.

CHAPTER 8 NOTICE AND ANNOUNCEMENT

Section 1 Notice

Article 173 Notices of the Company shall be issued by the following methods:

- (1) by hand;
- (2) by post;
- (3) by announcement;
- (4) by publishing on the websites designated by the Company and relevant stock exchanges, subject to relevant laws, administrative regulations and relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the shares of the Company are listed;
- (5) by other means required by the Articles of Association or approved by relevant regulatory authority of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Notwithstanding any other provisions contained in the Articles of Association in respect of the publishing or giving notice of any documents, circulars or other communications, the Company shall choose to announce such corporate communications electronically or by means provided under item (4) of this Article in place of delivering written documents by hand or by post to each shareholder of H shares, subject to relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 174 Where a notice sent by the Company is made by way of an announcement, the notice shall be deemed as received by all relevant parties.

Article 175 Unless otherwise provided by these Articles of Association, the Company's notices, information or written announcements to the shareholders of H shares shall be delivered by any of the following methods:

- (1) by electronic means;
- (2) by publishing on the Company's website or websites designated by the stock exchanges where the Company's shares are listed, in accordance with applicable laws, administrative regulations and relevant listing rules;
- (3) by the methods required by other stock exchanges where the Company's shares are listed and the Listing Rules.

Any notice in the form of announcement made by executing the power specified by these Articles of Association shall be published on newspapers or websites.

The Company is only required to deliver notices, information or other documents to one of the joint shareholders.

Article 176 The notice of the shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall be made mainly by announcement.

Article 177 The meeting notice of the Board of the Company shall be made mainly by hand.

Article 178 For a notice of the Company delivered by hand, the addressee shall sign (or stamp) on the receipt of the delivery, and the date of acknowledgement of receipt signed by the addressee shall be deemed as the date of delivery; where a notice of the Company is sent by post, the third working day after the notice is delivered to post office shall be deemed as the date of delivery; where a notice of the Company is made via announcement, the date on which the announcement is published for the first time shall be deemed as the date of delivery.

Article 179 The accidental omission to give a notice of a meeting to or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person who is entitled to receive the notice shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions passed at such meeting.

Section 2 Announcement

Article 180 Information disclosed by the Company according to law shall be released on the website of the Shanghai Stock Exchange (<http://www.sse.com.cn>), the easy disclosure website of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Ltd (<https://www.hkexnews.hk>) and media compliant with conditions prescribed by the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council, while at the same time being kept at the Company's domicile and the venue of stock exchange for reference by the general public.

Article 181 Any announcement to be published to shareholders of H shares as required by these Articles of Association shall be published by the methods specified by the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

CHAPTER 9 MERGER, DIVISION, INCREASE AND REDUCTION OF SHARE CAPITAL, DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

Section 1 Merger, Division, and Increase and Reduction of Share Capital

Article 182 The merger of the Company may take the form of either merger by absorption or merger by the establishment of a new company.

Where one company is absorbed by another in a merger by absorption, the absorbed company is dissolved. When more than two companies merge to establish a new company, the parties to the merger dissolve.

Article 183 Where the price paid by the Company for combination is no more than 10% of the Company's net assets, the combination may be made without resolutions of the general meeting, except as otherwise set forth herein.

Where the Company makes combined payment without general meeting resolutions according to the preceding provisions, the Board resolutions shall be required.

Article 184 In the event of merger or division of the Company, a plan shall be proposed by the Board and shall be approved in accordance with the procedures stipulated in these Articles of Association and the relevant examining and approving formalities shall be carried out as required by law. Shareholders who oppose the plan of merger or division of the Company shall have the right to request that the Company purchase their shares at a fair price. A special document of the Company's resolution on the merger or division should be prepared for inspection by the shareholders.

Article 185 In the event of a merger, the parties to the merger shall enter into a merger agreement and prepare balance sheets and inventories of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days as of the date of the Company's resolution on merger and shall make announcement within 30 days as of the date of the Company's resolution on merger. Creditors may, within 30 days after receipt of such notice from the Company, or within 45 days as of the date of the announcement for those who do not receive such notice, to demand that the Company repay their debts to that creditor or provide a corresponding guarantee for such debts.

Article 186 After the merger, claims and debts of parties to the merger shall be taken over by the continuing company or the newly established company.

Article 187 When the Company is divided, its assets shall be split up accordingly.

In the event of a division of the Company, the Company shall prepare balance sheets and inventories of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days as of the date of the Company's resolution on division and shall make announcement within 30 days as of the date of the Company's resolution on division.

Article 188 Unless otherwise agreed by the Company and creditors on settling debts in writing prior to the division, debts incurred by the Company before its division shall be jointly borne by the companies after the division.

Article 189 The Company shall prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets when it reduces its registered capital.

The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days from the date of the general meeting making the resolution on reduction in registered capital and shall publish an announcement within 30 days from the date of such resolution. A creditor has the right, within 30 days after receipt of such notice from the Company, or within 45 days as of the date of the announcement for those who do not receive such notice, to demand that the Company repay their debts to that creditor or provide a corresponding guarantee for such debts.

The Company shall reduce contributed amounts or shares according to shareholding ratios of shareholders when reducing its registered capital, except as otherwise prescribed by laws or these articles of association.

Article 190 If losses remain after the Company makes up its losses according to Subsection 2 of Article 158 hereof, the Company may reduce its registered capital to cover the losses. Where registered capital is reduced to cover losses, the Company may not make distribution to shareholders or exempt any shareholders from their obligation to pay capital contributions or amounts on shares.

Where the registered capital is reduced according to the preceding provisions, the provisions of Subsection 2 of Article 189 hereof shall not apply, but announcement shall be made within 30 days of the date when the general meeting makes the resolution on reduction in registered capital.

After reducing its registered capital according to the two preceding subsections, the Company may not distribute its profits until and unless the accumulated amount of statutory reserve and discretionary reserve reaches 50% of the Company's registered capital.

Article 191 Where the registered capital is reduced in violation of the Company Law or other relevant provisions, shareholders shall return funds received and the original state shall be restored if capital contributions from shareholders are reduced or exempted; in case of any losses caused to the Company, shareholders and directors and officers held responsible shall be liable for damages.

Article 192 When the Company issues new shares for increasing its registered capital, shareholders shall have no preemptive rights, except as otherwise set forth herein or where the general meeting resolution decides that shareholders are entitled to preemptive rights.

Article 193 When the merger or division of the Company involves changes in registered particulars, such changes shall be registered with the company registration authority in accordance with the law. When the Company dissolves, the Company shall cancel its registration in accordance with the law. When a new company is established, its establishment shall be registered in accordance with the law.

When the Company increases or reduces its share capital, such changes shall be registered with the company registration authority in accordance with the law.

Section 2 Dissolution and Liquidation

Article 194 The Company shall be dissolved due to any of the following reasons:

- (1) the term of operation expires, or any dissolution events as stipulated in these Articles of Association occur;
- (2) a resolution for dissolution is passed at a shareholders' general meeting;
- (3) dissolution as a result of a merger or division of the Company;
- (4) the business license of the Company is revoked, or the Company is ordered to close down or is closed down in accordance with laws due to violation of laws and administrative regulations;
- (5) shareholders holding 10% or more of all the voting rights of the Company may apply to the People's court for dissolution when the Company experiences severe difficulties in its operations and management and continual operation of the Company will bring significant losses to the interest of shareholders while there are no other ways to resolve the difficulties;

Where any cause of dissolution set forth in the preceding provisions occur on the part of the Company, the Company shall publicize the cause of dissolution via the national enterprise credit information publicity system within 10 days.

Article 195 Where the situation set forth in item (1) or item (2) of Article 194 of these Articles of Association occurs, the Company may continue to exist by amending these Articles of Association or through a general meeting resolution if properties have not yet been distributed to shareholders. Amendments to these Articles of Association or the general meeting resolution in accordance with preceding paragraph shall be passed by a vote representing two-thirds or more of the voting rights of the shareholders present at the general meeting.

Article 196 Should the Company dissolve due to reasons stipulated in items (1), (2), (4) or (5) of Article 194 hereof, the Company shall be liquidated. Directors are obligated to liquidate the Company and shall form a liquidation committee to begin liquidation within 15 days after the occurrence of the dissolution event.

The liquidation committee shall comprise directors, except as otherwise set forth herein or that the general meeting resolves to choose others.

Article 197 During the liquidation period, the liquidation committee shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) to sort out the Company's assets and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets respectively;
- (2) to serve notices or make announcements to creditors;
- (3) to dispose of and liquidate any unfinished businesses of the Company;
- (4) to pay all outstanding taxes as well as taxes arising in the course of liquidation;
- (5) to settle claims and debts;
- (6) to distribute the properties remaining after the Company's debts have been repaid;
- (7) to represent the Company in any civil proceedings.

Article 198 The liquidation committee shall, within 10 days of its establishment, send notices to creditors and shall, within 60 days of its establishment, publish announcement. Creditors shall, within 30 days of receipt of the notice, or for creditors who have not personally received such notice, within 45 days of the date of the public announcement, declare their rights to the liquidation committee.

The creditor who declares the creditor's right shall state the relevant matter in relation to the debt, and provide supporting materials. The liquidation committee shall register the creditors' rights.

During the period of declaring claims, the liquidation committee shall not settle any debt with the creditors.

Article 199 After the liquidation committee has sorted out the assets of the Company and prepared the balance sheets and the inventory of assets, it shall formulate a liquidation scheme and report it to the shareholders' general meeting or the relevant competent authorities for confirmation.

After the payment of liquidation charges, staff salary, social insurance, statutory compensation, outstanding tax and the debts of the Company, the remaining assets of the Company shall be distributed to shareholders in proportion to their shareholdings.

During the liquidation period, the company continues to exist, but it may not commence operational activities not related to the liquidation. The assets of the Company shall not be distributed to the shareholders before they are used for settlement in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

Article 200 After sorting out the assets of the Company and preparing the balance sheets and the inventory of assets, if the liquidation committee discovers that the assets of the Company are not enough to pay off the debts, it should apply to the People's Court for bankruptcy liquidation according to the law.

After the People's Court accepts the application for bankruptcy, the liquidation committee should transfer the liquidation to the bankruptcy administrator designated by the People's Court.

Article 201 After the completion of liquidation, the liquidation committee should prepare a liquidation report and submit the same to the shareholders' general meeting or the people's court for confirmation and submit it to the company registration authority for deregistration of the Company.

Article 202 The members of the liquidation committee shall fulfill the liquidation duties and have the duty of faith and diligence.

Where a member of the liquidation committee causes loss to the Company by reason of gross negligence in performing liquidation duties, he shall be liable for damages; the member shall be liable for damages if he causes losses to the Company or its creditors due to intentional misconduct or gross negligence.

Article 203 Where the Company is declared bankrupt according to law, the Company shall carry out bankruptcy liquidation according to the law concerning corporate bankruptcy.

CHAPTER 10 AMENDMENTS TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Article 204 Under any of the following circumstances, the Company shall amend these Articles of Association:

- (1) after the revision of the Company Law or relevant laws and administrative regulations, the provisions of these Articles of Association conflict with the revised laws or administrative regulations;
- (2) where the Company's situation changes, thus causes the inconsistency with the matters recorded in these Articles of Association;

- (3) the shareholders' general meeting decides to amend these Articles of Association.

Article 205 Where the amendments to these Articles of Association passed by a resolution at a shareholders' general meeting need the examination and approval of the competent authorities, these amendments shall be submitted to competent authorities for approval; if an amendment is relevant to any registration items of the Company, modifications of the registration shall be completed according to law.

Article 206 Where the amendments to the Articles of Association involve matters requiring disclosure by laws and regulations, the amendments shall be announced in accordance with the requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

CHAPTER 11 SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Article 207 Definitions

- (1) Controlling shareholder shall mean a shareholder whose shareholdings account for more than 50% of the total share capital of a company limited by shares; or a shareholder whose shareholding ratio is no more than 50% but whose voting power pursuant to his share holdings is sufficient to produce material effects on the resolutions of the General Meeting.
- (2) Actual controller shall refer to a natural person, legal person or other organization who can actually dominate the Company's actions through investment relationship, agreements or other arrangements.
- (3) Connected relations shall refer to the relationship between the Company's controlling shareholders, actual controller, directors, officers and those enterprises which are directly or indirectly controlled by the foregoing parties and such other relationship which may cause the interests of the Company to be transferred. However, the state-controlled enterprises do not have connected relations with each other merely because they are all being controlled by the State.
- (4) Additional gratuities shall refer to the one-off compensation paid to the leaving officers at medium level or above of the Company by the shareholders separately or jointly holding 10% or more of the shares of the Company for the resignation or dismissal of such officers caused by the fact that such shareholders further acquire the Company's shares and become de facto controllers.

Management personnel at medium level or above shall refer to management personnel in the position of assistant to department manager of the Company or above, including the directors of the Company entitled to remuneration from the Company and its controlled subsidiaries.

The calculation of the additional gratuities is as follows:

P represents additional gratuities;

S represents the sum of total annual salary before tax, additional wages, bonus, benefits and market value of the incentive shares of the leaving personnel for the year of leaving the Company;

A represents the difference between the years of age of the leaving personnel and the retiring age. If the difference is less than five years, it shall be deemed as five years;

Q1 represents the absolute value of the accumulative price inflation index for the last three consecutive years of Shanghai published by Shanghai Municipal Bureau of Statistics;

Q2 represents the absolute value of the accumulative interest rate increase index for the last three consecutive years published by the People's Bank of China;

Q3 represents the absolute value of the growth rate of per capita disposable income for the last three consecutive years of Shanghai published by Shanghai Municipal Bureau of Statistics.

Article 208 If the relevant laws, administrative regulations and the relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authority of the place where the company is listed have other provisions on the content described herein such provisions shall prevail.

Article 209 The Board may formulate by-laws in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association.

Article 210 These Articles of Association are written in Chinese. In case of any inconsistency between these Articles of Association and the articles of association in any other language or of different version, the latest Chinese version of these Articles of Association approved by and registered with the Shanghai Administration for Market Regulation shall prevail.

Article 211 The term “or more” and “within” as stated in these Articles of Association shall all include the given figure; the term “not exceeding”, “except”, “less than” and “more than” shall all exclude the given figure.

Article 212 Chairman shall bear the same meaning as “chairman of the Board”; Vice chairman shall bear the same meaning as “Vice chairman of the Board”; Manager shall bear the same meaning as “CEO”; Vice Manager shall bear the same meaning as “Vice CEO”; Accounting firm shall bear the same meaning as “auditors” and a “Business Day” means the date on which the Stock Exchange is open for the business of dealings in securities.

Article 213 The Board shall be responsible for the interpretation of these Articles of Association.

Article 214 The appendix(es) to these Articles of Association include(s) Rules of Procedures for shareholders' general meetings, and Rules of Procedures for the Board of Directors.

These Articles of Association shall be effective from the date of the deliberation and approval of the 2024 annual general meeting of the Company.
